++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Sunnier by day, but frosty nights.

This Evening and Tonight:
A band of cloud and patchy light rain clearing southwestwards. Most parts dry with clearing skies and a widespread frost developing. A few showers near North Sea coasts.

Friday:
Most parts dry with sunny spells after a cold and frosty start, though one or two light showers are possible in the east. Light winds for most.

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Fine and settled to start the weekend with sharp frost overnight. Cloudier conditions and outbreaks of rain across Scotland and Northern Ireland before spreading erratically southeastwards.
